The optimal step length as function of alpha